CITY IN BRIEF.

The district meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will be held in Franklin, Johnson County, to-morrow.

"The Steam User and Engineer" will be the subject of Colonel George Miner's address at Wright's Hall Wednesday evening.

John Telly and Louis Trens, two boys, were arrested yesterday for shooting inside the city limits and desecrating the Sabbath.

It was learned yesterday that Mr. Bradley was carrying $1,000 insurance on the Wigwam, he having recently decreased it from $2,000.

Patronized by lawyers, doctors, ministers, and thousands of ladies and gentlemen who never visit any other place of amusement—Dime Museum.

The Cincinnati papers say that Abe Rhinock, now in jail here for bunko steering, is known there as "Fagin, the stealer," and is undoubtedly one of the worst "coin" men in the country.

The annual meeting of the State Medical Society will be held in this city, beginning to-morrow and continuing three days. Special rates have been secured on the railroads and reduced rates will be given by the hotels. A number of valuable papers will be read at the meeting.

Between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a sneak thief entered the residence of Charles Lohman, 25 Ray street, in the absence of the family and made way with a pair of shoes and a suit of clothes; also some eatables. He had placed three boxes of cigars in a bundle with the intention of carrying them off, but the unexpected arrival of Mr. Lohman induced him to drop the bundle and run.

An Afflicted Family.

The infant child of James Burke, residing at 80 Oak street, died yesterday, and the undertaker who went to take charge of the remains reports a scene which is rarely witnessed. Mrs. Burke was delivered of a pair of twins some two weeks ago, one of which died yesterday. The mother is lying critically ill from blood poisoning, and the father, worn out with watching, fell sick, and yesterday was dying in an adjoining room. He appears to be suffering from brain fever, and is constantly raving like a madman, and all the time hiccoughing, it being impossible to check the latter affection. The Knights and Ladies of Honor, of which order the afflicted father and mother are members, have taken charge of the family, and are doing all in human power to relieve their distress.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The Matlock Combination appear at English's last three nights of this week, in "A Celebrated Case," at cheap prices.

Gilmore's new Iron Zoo opens the week to night with a strong specialty company. Two performances will be given each evening, and the admission has been reduced to ten cents.

The Dime Museum begins another week this afternoon with the Keane comedy company in "Solon Shingle" and Rice & Barlow's minstrels as the principal attractions. Several new novelties will be on exhibition in the curiosity hall.

Theodore Thomas and his matchless concert company appear at English's Opera House to-morrow night. The company contains the following well-known musical stars: Madame Fursch-Madi, Miss Emma Juch, Miss Hattie J. Clapper, Mr. W. J. Winch, and Mr. Max Heinrich, all under the personal directorship of Theodore Thomas. Those of our citizens that have not secured their seats should do so at once as undoubtedly the house will be crowded.

To-night at the Grand Opera House the celebrated Draper "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company begins a week's engagement at cheap prices—ten and twenty cents. This is the largest and best company presenting this famous play, and last week in Cincinnati they played to the largest week's business of the season, nightly turning people away. There are two "Topsy" and two "Mark," two donkeys, Tennessee jubilee singers, pack of Siberian blood hounds and a host of other novelties. There will be matinee each afternoon after to-day. Everybody will want to see dear old "Uncle Tom" and sweet little "Eva" again.

Mr. Thompson as a Fighter.

During the progress of the Wigwam fire Saturday night Charles Thompson had a row with Jennie Lucas at her rooms over 176 West Washington street, and struck her a terrible blow on the nose. Upon examination it was found that there was a fracture of the bones of the nose. Yesterday her eyes were black and badly swollen, as was also the greater part of her face. No explanation of the affair was given, but when a policeman remarked that he guessed it was not very serious the injured woman replied, "No, it would be nothing serious if I had been killed." Thompson was not arrested, and it is not probable that he will be, as no one seems to want to swear out a warrant against him. He has been arrested twice, not three times before for this sort of thing and heavily fined, the last time getting five days in jail. On one occasion he drew a knife on Merchant Police Officer Taylor. The Lucas woman was recently reported badly hurt in a manner similar to that of Saturday night.

Following Up a Clue.

Some three weeks ago the general store of Wash. Carter, at Glenn's Valley, a few miles south of the city, was robbed of $100 worth of goods, by parties who, the police were confident, belonged here. They exerted themselves to the utmost to obtain a clue that would lead to the capture of the perpetrators, and their efforts were attended with success day before yesterday, when one of the thieves, while under the influence of liquor in a Washington street saloon, dropped pointers that led to the arrest of Frank Hillman, William Simpson, and August Ketchel last night, by a posse headed by Captain Coker, Sergeant Quigley, Lowe and Saurera. All of the men were found at their homes, and a large portion of the "awag" was recovered.

Self Destroyed.

At an early hour yesterday morning Flanner & Hommown were called to take charge of the body of Laura E. Blakely, a colored girl seventeen years of age, residing in the rear of 293 North Mississippi street, who had just died. Yesterday when they called upon Dr. Elbert for a death certificate the Doctor refused to issue it, saying that the girl had destroyed her own life and he would not issue a certificate till the Coroner had seen the remains. That official was notified, and, after making an examination, was satisfied that death had occurred from self-inflicted injuries in an attempt to conceal her shame. He will investigate further to-day.

Burglars Arrested.

Two young men, Ed Rinkle and John Fleck, languish behind the bars at the Central Station for burglarizing the office connected with A. B. Meyer's coal yard, their arrest on this charge being chronicled in yesterday's paper. The police believe that they are the perpetrators of several other robberies that have been committed in the past two or three weeks. Among the places that are supposed to have been robbed by these young men are Madden's grocery, May's stove factory office, office to Hill's lumber yard, Hunt & Pray's livery stable, and the establishment of Steinhauer & Brotz.

It Injures Their Business.

A case of scarlet fever developed last week in a colored family, living at 42 Kentucky avenue, and a health flag was put up. A number of persons of that neighborhood made vigorous protests against the display of the sign, saying it was injuring their business. The flag remained up till Saturday night, when some person, unknown in the neighborhood, tore it down as he went to the fire at the Wigwam.

St. Vincent's Fair.

The fair for the benefit of St. Vincent's Hospital begins to-morrow. During the progress of the fair the ladies will furnish dinner daily at 68 West Washington street, where the public is invited to call. During the week supper can be had at Masonic Hall. Meals to be furnished for twenty-five cents.

Coulter's Injuries Not Fatal.

John Coulter, the fireman injured at the Wigwam Rink fire on Saturday night, suffered considerable pain yesterday, but the physicians say his injuries are not fatal and that he will be able to go on duty again in a week.

A MYSTERIOUS BUNDLE.

Circumstances Indicating That an Infant is Decaying in a Vault.

At an early hour Thursday night a lady saw a colored man enter the privy in the rear of the residence of A. J. Crose, No. 378 Indiana avenue. He carried a small bundle in his arms and his actions indicated that he was somewhat nervous and hurried. Before entering he took occasion to look about him in every direction, as if anxious to see whether or not he was being watched. The lady determined to remain in a place of concealment until the negro should re-appear, and she did not have to wait long, for scarcely three minutes elapsed before he stepped out of the privy, and, shutting the door behind him, walked rapidly away, but brought no bundle out with him. The lady intended to mention the circumstance to her family, but it slipped her memory and two days passed before it was recalled. On Saturday afternoon one of the members of Mr. Crose's family entered the out-house and was met with a horrible stench, similar to that which arises from a dead person in the last stages of decay. She almost fainted on the spot but by a strong effort managed to stagger back into the yard where she was seized with a vomiting spell of several minutes duration. The remainder of the family then came out of the house and soon found out that something was the matter with the vault. Their neighbor, who had seen the colored man with the mysterious bundle, then related the circumstance and Mr. Crose, after hearing her story, became convinced that the man had dropped an infant into the vault. He at once nailed up the door and yesterday afternoon notified Patroleman McCreary of the affair. The police at once made a view of the vault and like the others was visibly affected by the sickening odor arising therefrom. He reported the matter at police headquarters and the vault will be cleaned out to-day. The police as yet have no clue to the identity or whereabouts of the colored man who figured so prominently in this mysterious affair.

THE ICE COMPANY'S HORSE.

Which May be the Means of Haunting an Interesting Case Into Court.

One week ago to-day the Indianapolis Ice Company purchased of Horace Wood a horse, to be used in the delivery of ice to city customers, giving therefor a check for $175. Wood giving a written guarantee, Tuesday, while the horse was at work on West Washington street, it began to stagger, and in a moment it fell to the ground. The harness was removed, and after some trouble the horse was placed on its feet. This occurred a second time, when a veterinary surgeon was called. The horse was taken into a stable, and soon dropped dead. Not long after that it was taken to the Sailer's farm, and on Wednesday five surgeons visited the farm and made a complete examination, dissection of every part of the body. The reason of this was a dispute as to the cause of death. The result of the post mortem was not conclusive, but the majority of the surgeons assigned for a cause "azoturia." There is another feature of the story worthy of consideration. Mr. Wood did not draw his money, but placed the check given him by the ice firm in bank. The firm went to the bank after the horse died and stopped payment of the check, and when it had passed through the Clearing House refused to honor it. It is probable that Mr. Wood will now be plaintiff in a suit for the $175, whereas if he had drawn the money he probably would have been defendant. In case the matter goes to the courts a fight will ensue, which will depend upon the testimony of the persons for the fact whether the horse was diseased before the sale.

Sacred Concert.

The concert given by the City Band and orchestra at Masonic Hall last night was a fine one musically, and netted for the membership quite a handsome sum. The organization is an old and popular one and it met with deserved recognition from our German citizens. The selections given by the band and orchestra consisted of "Coronation march," "Forge in the Forest," overtures to "Martha" and "Maritana," airs from "Chorus of Normandy" and the polpotri, "a joke." They were all given with decided skill and precision, for which these our best professionals are noted. A clarinet solo, "Aria Varie," was rendered as only Mr. Henry Shoenmaker can render it. The perfect manner in which Mr. S. handles his difficult instrument has earned for him quite a reputation throughout the country which he can be proud of. Mr. Perry Ingalls gave Levy's celebrated cornet solo, "Murmured polka" in excellent style and was awarded a hearty recall. A vocal duet by Messrs. Lotie Adams and Laura Hessling and a baritone solo and chorus by Mr. Bennerheid and Mannerchor completed the programme. Both of these numbers were greatly appreciated by the audience.

A Lad Hurt.

Yesterday evening just after dark several little boys were playing on the corner of Mississippi and Washington streets, when suddenly a carriage drawn by two black horses, which had been standing near by, wheeled around, and the horses started at a tremendous pace down the street. One of the boys was knocked down and ran over, but beyond a slight injury to his nose no damage was done. Two men and two women, all unknown, occupied the carriage.
